

Abstract

This project proposes the organization of fiber-optic communication line on the section «Taldykorgan – Ushtobe». In the design process to solve problems of network topology, choice of fiber optic cable and the calculation of its most important characteristics, select the desired level and the number of multiplexers, the distribution of the multiplexers at the stations.

Well the project addressed the issues of health and safety and composed business plan project.