

Abstract

In this diplom work we discuss the possibility of two-way satellite Internet organizations in rural place. Task project - organizing satellite Internet to remote areas where there is no mobile connection.

Manufactured calculation of parameters of the satellite system, energy rasch.t site satellite link. In addition, we performed a feasibility study, the calculation of basic economic indicators, issues of safety and environmental project.