

Abstract

The Diploma project is dedicated to the development of control system of the aircraft with incomplete information. The project is developed system software fuzzy control of the aircraft, which is implemented in the programming environment Delphi. And also conducted management model aircraft with fuzzy controller.

The calculation of technical and economic performance of individual tasks and solved a number of issues of safety.

Structure of this work is presented by introduction, chapters, conclusion and bibliography.

There are 4 tables, 22 pictures and 33 literature sources in the diploma project.

The Diploma project totally consists of __ pages.