

Abstract

Diploma project dedicated to the development of local differential correction satellite navigation signals, which can adjust the incoming data, get rid of the errors affecting the accuracy of determining the location of the object.

Diploma's structure consists of introduction, four chapters, conclusion, bibliography and application.

There are 8 tables, 17 figures and 17 literature sources in the diploma project. The total volume of the diploma is 61 pages.