

Annotation

In the main part of the diplom is a description of GRES-2, were also examples of improving the efficiency of the station and was calculated thermal circuit unit 500 MW.

In the second part of the diplom were made of analysis of the working environment turbine room and calculation of neutral earthing.

In the economic part of the diploma was calculated cost of electricity generation before and after expander station.