Abstract

This diploma project presents an information resource management system of the educational center, which will allow to keep an effective record of the processes of work with customers, employees, and payments, and if necessary, will provide reports in the form of an analysis of the work done by the center for the specified periods.

Software information system implemented in an object-oriented environment 1C: Enterprise 8.3 m.12.15.95.

The work also describes the safety measures of life when working with this application. A feasibility study of the developed system has been developed