

Annotation

Diploma project "Development of security policy of the insurance company" consists of an introduction, explanatory note, conclusion and annexes. The explanation consists of _61_ pages, which includes _45_ figures and _6_ tables.

The aim of the diploma project is the development of the information system of the security Service of the organization on the example of the insurance company.

General methods of research diploma project: the method of structural and object-oriented analysis and design of business processes of service stations.

In this project, two input and one output documents were formed; the structure of safety indicators used in the database of the insurance company was developed and processed; interfaces were used to build a model of the enterprise-relationship. Tables in the project are implemented in DBMS.

The graduation project was signed using the C# language in Microsoft Visual Studio. It is based in the MSSQL Studio database.