Annotation

In this study based on the intimate hand testing and running of various Telegram bots were identified criteria that characterize the Telegram bot as high-quality and was developed Telegram bot PSinfo. The most positive criteria, identified in the process of studying other bots, were addressed in the course of the elaboration of the draft. The bot has the necessary protection and intuitive interface that allows the user to easily control the bot. The access control and data filtering system was implemented as a means of protection