

Abstract

In this diploma project, ways to solve the problems of recycling and processing of solid domestic waste for the purpose of secondary use were considered.

Also in the graduation project identified security of life and developed a business plan for the project.