

Annotation

In the manufacture of filters, Dostar LLP releases harmful substances into the environment. In the thesis work was calculated emissions of harmful substances into the atmosphere. According to these calculations, an analysis was made of the need to install dust and gas trapping equipment. Shows the location of workshops and noise sources.

The analysis of the problem of noise in the workshop. In the economic part, expenses and material costs for carrying out measures and calculating payments for emissions are calculated.