

ANNOTATION

The diploma project provides for measures to increase the capacity of the second Thermal Power Plant in the city of Almaty. Thermal schemes and calculations of the main equipment installed at the station were performed. Proposals to improve this task are considered. Currently, the project is considering the reconstruction of a thermal boiler that complements the deaeration thermal system. The feasibility study of the reconstruction project, safety and environmental issues were also presented.