

Annotation

This diploma project presents modernization of ATEC by turbine condensers. The principal heat-transfer scheme is calculated. The calculations of the system of zeroing of the induction motor were carried out are provided in the activity's safety and protection of labour section. In the economic part, the cost price of heat and electricity was calculated.