

Annotation

In this thesis project deals with the question of reconstruction of the housing Department CHPP-4 boilers BKZ with the purpose of reducing the emissions of nitrogen oxides.

The calculation of the equipment is made and the feasibility study of the project is given, calculations of economic efficiency and quick payback of the project are made.

And also examined the issues of safety.