

Annotation

The diploma project is a feasibility study for the construction of CHP in Taldykorgan. In addition, to provide the city with full thermal energy and electricity, the thermal power of the thermal power plant 230MW was calculated. In addition, the main equipment of the thermal power plant was selected, life safety and economic components were considered.