

Annotation

The calculations of the heat block at Ekibastuz GRES-2 were carried out to determine the possibility of the increased amount of energy production.

An assessment of the impact of noise on the turbine department workers has been made and the calculation of the insulating surfaces for the surveillance camera has been carried out.

Calculated the cost of heat and electricity and the further calculation of the investment project for the expansion of EGRES-2