Annotation

The theme of the graduation project is: "Smart traffic light with busy street sensor".

The graduation project describes the history of traffic lights and its types. The components necessary for creating a smart traffic light are described and their connection is shown. The program algorithm that ensures the project functioning is shown, and the program for monitoring is shown. The relevance of smart traffic lights in everyday life is provided.