

Annotation

The diploma project is designed to study and compile the dynamics and kinematics of a manipulator for moving human power in industrial enterprises. Its program was developed manually. Research on the project's life safety has been conducted. In the economic part of the project, the costs and payback time are determined.