

The theme of the diploma project is “ development of an Autonomous drone”. Depending on the many difficulties in the production sectors, currently, the selection and programming of components of an Autonomous unmanned aerial vehicle is provided. It was shown the design of a drone to perform work inaccessible to humans and requiring high energy intensity. The issues of economic efficiency and environmental protection were also discussed.