

Annotation

The diploma project is dedicated to the development of partial automation of the fleet of storage tanks. The topic of oil of Kazakhstan was mentioned. The choice and implementation of the controller, level gauges, SCADA-system was carried out. SCADA was installed on a PC in the control room. Mimics and Web have been developed for operators. The function of creating reports by level value is also implemented.