

Annotation

This diploma project the automated stamping process. An RTC control system has been developed for hot stamping and its elements. The control system in this work is based on the Siemens SIMATIC S7-300 multifunction controller. An RTC planning scheme, a control system service, a PLC connection scheme, an algorithm and a control program have been developed.