

ANNOTATION

This diploma project provides for the creation of an electronic diary for primary school students. The goal is to help parents monitor their children's progress, know their homework, and make it easier for teachers to work. The diploma project used the most common technologies used in the diploma project. Where the main technology is HTML,CSS, BOOTSTRAP, and SQLite database storage database used in PYTHON.

During the implementation of the workplace software, compliance with the conditions is provided.

In the last section of the diploma project, the feasibility study, evaluation of the program and life safety are considered.