

Annotation

This thesis deals with the design of comprehensive measures to protect the information system of a real estate agency, using the Oracle database, the Laravel and Vue frameworks, to create a secure web application, study possible vulnerabilities and organize its protection.