

Annotation

In this work, the standards of maximum permissible emissions (MPC) of pollutants entering the atmosphere from the main building of the Kyzylorda heat and power plants were calculated.

The project defines, calculates and systematizes the characteristics of emission sources and emissions of pollutants.

The diploma project consists of an introduction, six sections, conclusion, list of literature and graphic works in the form of slides.