

Annotation

The graduation project is devoted to the development and reinforcement of acquired knowledge during training at the university. In connection with the aging of the heating system equipment of the first stage of HPS-2, the modernization of the group of pumps for peak network heaters of the first stage of PSV No. 1-4 was considered. The necessity of modernization was substantiated and an economic calculation of payback was made.