

Annotation

In the graduation project, the task was set to design the Ekibastuz GRES-2 with a capacity of 1000 MW on the basis of powerful condensation units K-500-240 with radial-axial steps, which have a higher efficiency compared to axial steps.

According to the initial data, the maximum fuel consumption was determined.

The analysis of the economic part and to ensure the safety of life.